STATEMENT ON THE MCCULLY FIRE

I want to offer my heartfelt condolences to the Honolulu Fire Department and the family of the fallen firefighter who lost his life in the line of duty a few nights ago. This tragedy is a reminder of the courage our first responders display daily and a sacrifice that will not be forgotten.

As we grieve this profound loss, I invite the community to join me in prayer and reflection for the injured firefighters in their recovery. Their resilience and commitment to serving our community in the face of danger are nothing short of heroic.

Though this is a moment of sorrow, it is also a time to recognize the strength of our community. I hope we can lift one another up, remember the bravery of our firefighters, and carry forward their legacy of service and sacrifice.
